

```
In [7]:
                                                                            options = hv.Store.custom_options()[content.id]
In [6]:
         print(repr(content))
                                                                            print(repr(options))
Out[6]:
          :Layout
                                                                  Out[7]:
                                                                             OptionTree(groups=['plot', 'style', 'norm'],
             .Overlay.Mandelbrot Set :Overlay
                .Image.Mandelbrot_Set :Image
                                                                                plot={'Curve ' : dict(aspect=1.25),
                                               [Re,Im]
                                                         (z)
                                                                                      'Layout' : dict(aspect_weight=1,
                .HLine.I
                                      :HLine
                                               [x,y]
             .Curve.Cross section
                                     :Curve
                                              [Re] sublabel format='{Roman}')}, (z)
                                                                                style={'Curve' : dict(linewidth=3),
                                                                                       'Image' : dict(cmap='Blues')})
```